

CRIMSON

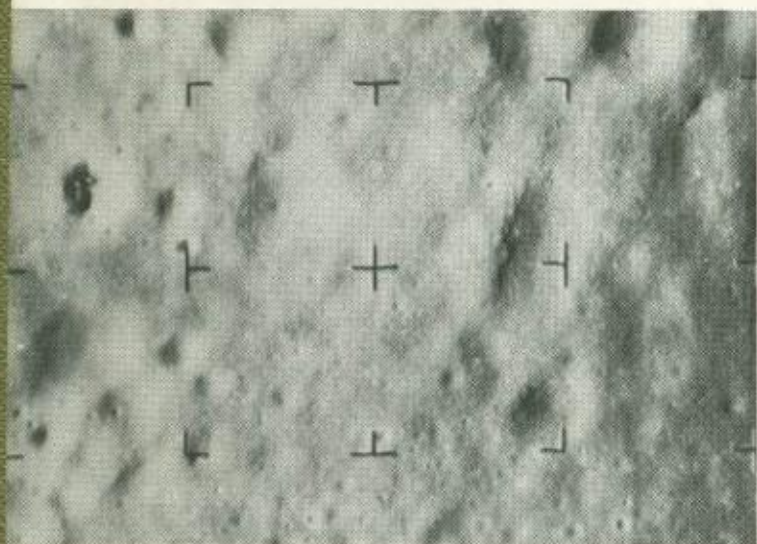

Capital Appearance—The Beatles performed for a youthful audience in Washington on the night of February 12.

Opening for Juniors—These college juniors join the Peace Corps' new summer project for six to eight weeks of training similar to that for regular Peace Corps volunteers. They later did survey work near Taos, N.M. After graduation they will be sent to Latin America.

Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

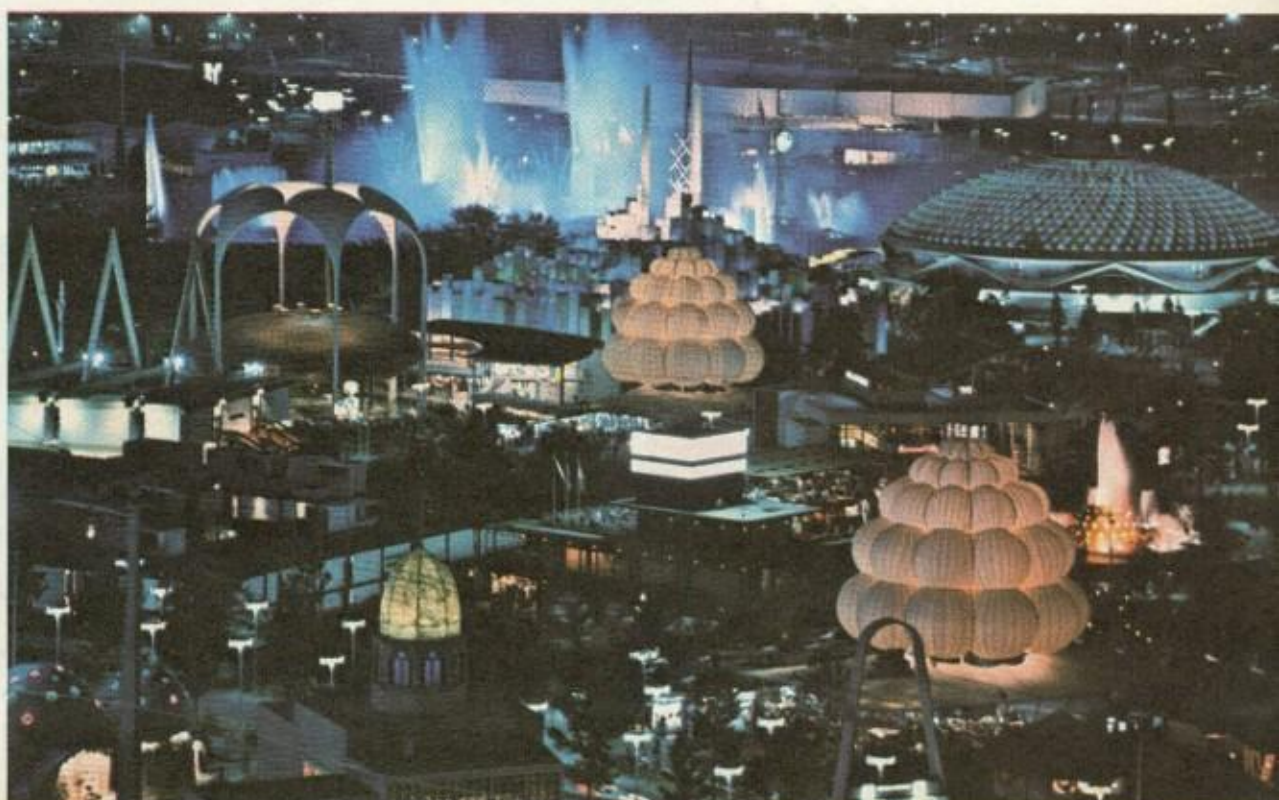

Family Grieves—Gust Carlson, father of Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary slain by rebel troops in the Congo, dabbed at his eyes during a news conference in Los Angeles on November 24. He is flanked by his daughter and another son.

New Teen-Age Queen—Smiling Carolyn Mignini, 17, of Baltimore was crowned the new Miss Teen-age America of 1965 in Dallas on November 13.

World's Fair at Night—The New York World's Fair attracted as many visitors at night as it did during the day following its April opening. The nighttime lights set off the beautiful pavilions constructed by many countries.

Barbara Mubernick

Democratic Victor—President Lyndon Johnson won the 1964 election by the greatest plurality and per cent of the total vote in U. S. history. Johnson became President at the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Barry's Battle for Votes—Sen. Barry Goldwater was surrounded by fans at Knoxville, Tenn., airport September 16 as he campaigned for the presidency on the Republican ticket. The conservative senator swept to a first-ballot nomination at the convention in San Francisco.

Nobel Prize Winner—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., right, was greeted by Richard C. Patterson, commissioner of public events, at Kennedy International Airport Dec. 16 on arrival from Europe. Dr. King was in Oslo to receive the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize.

National Events in Review—1964

Reds are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

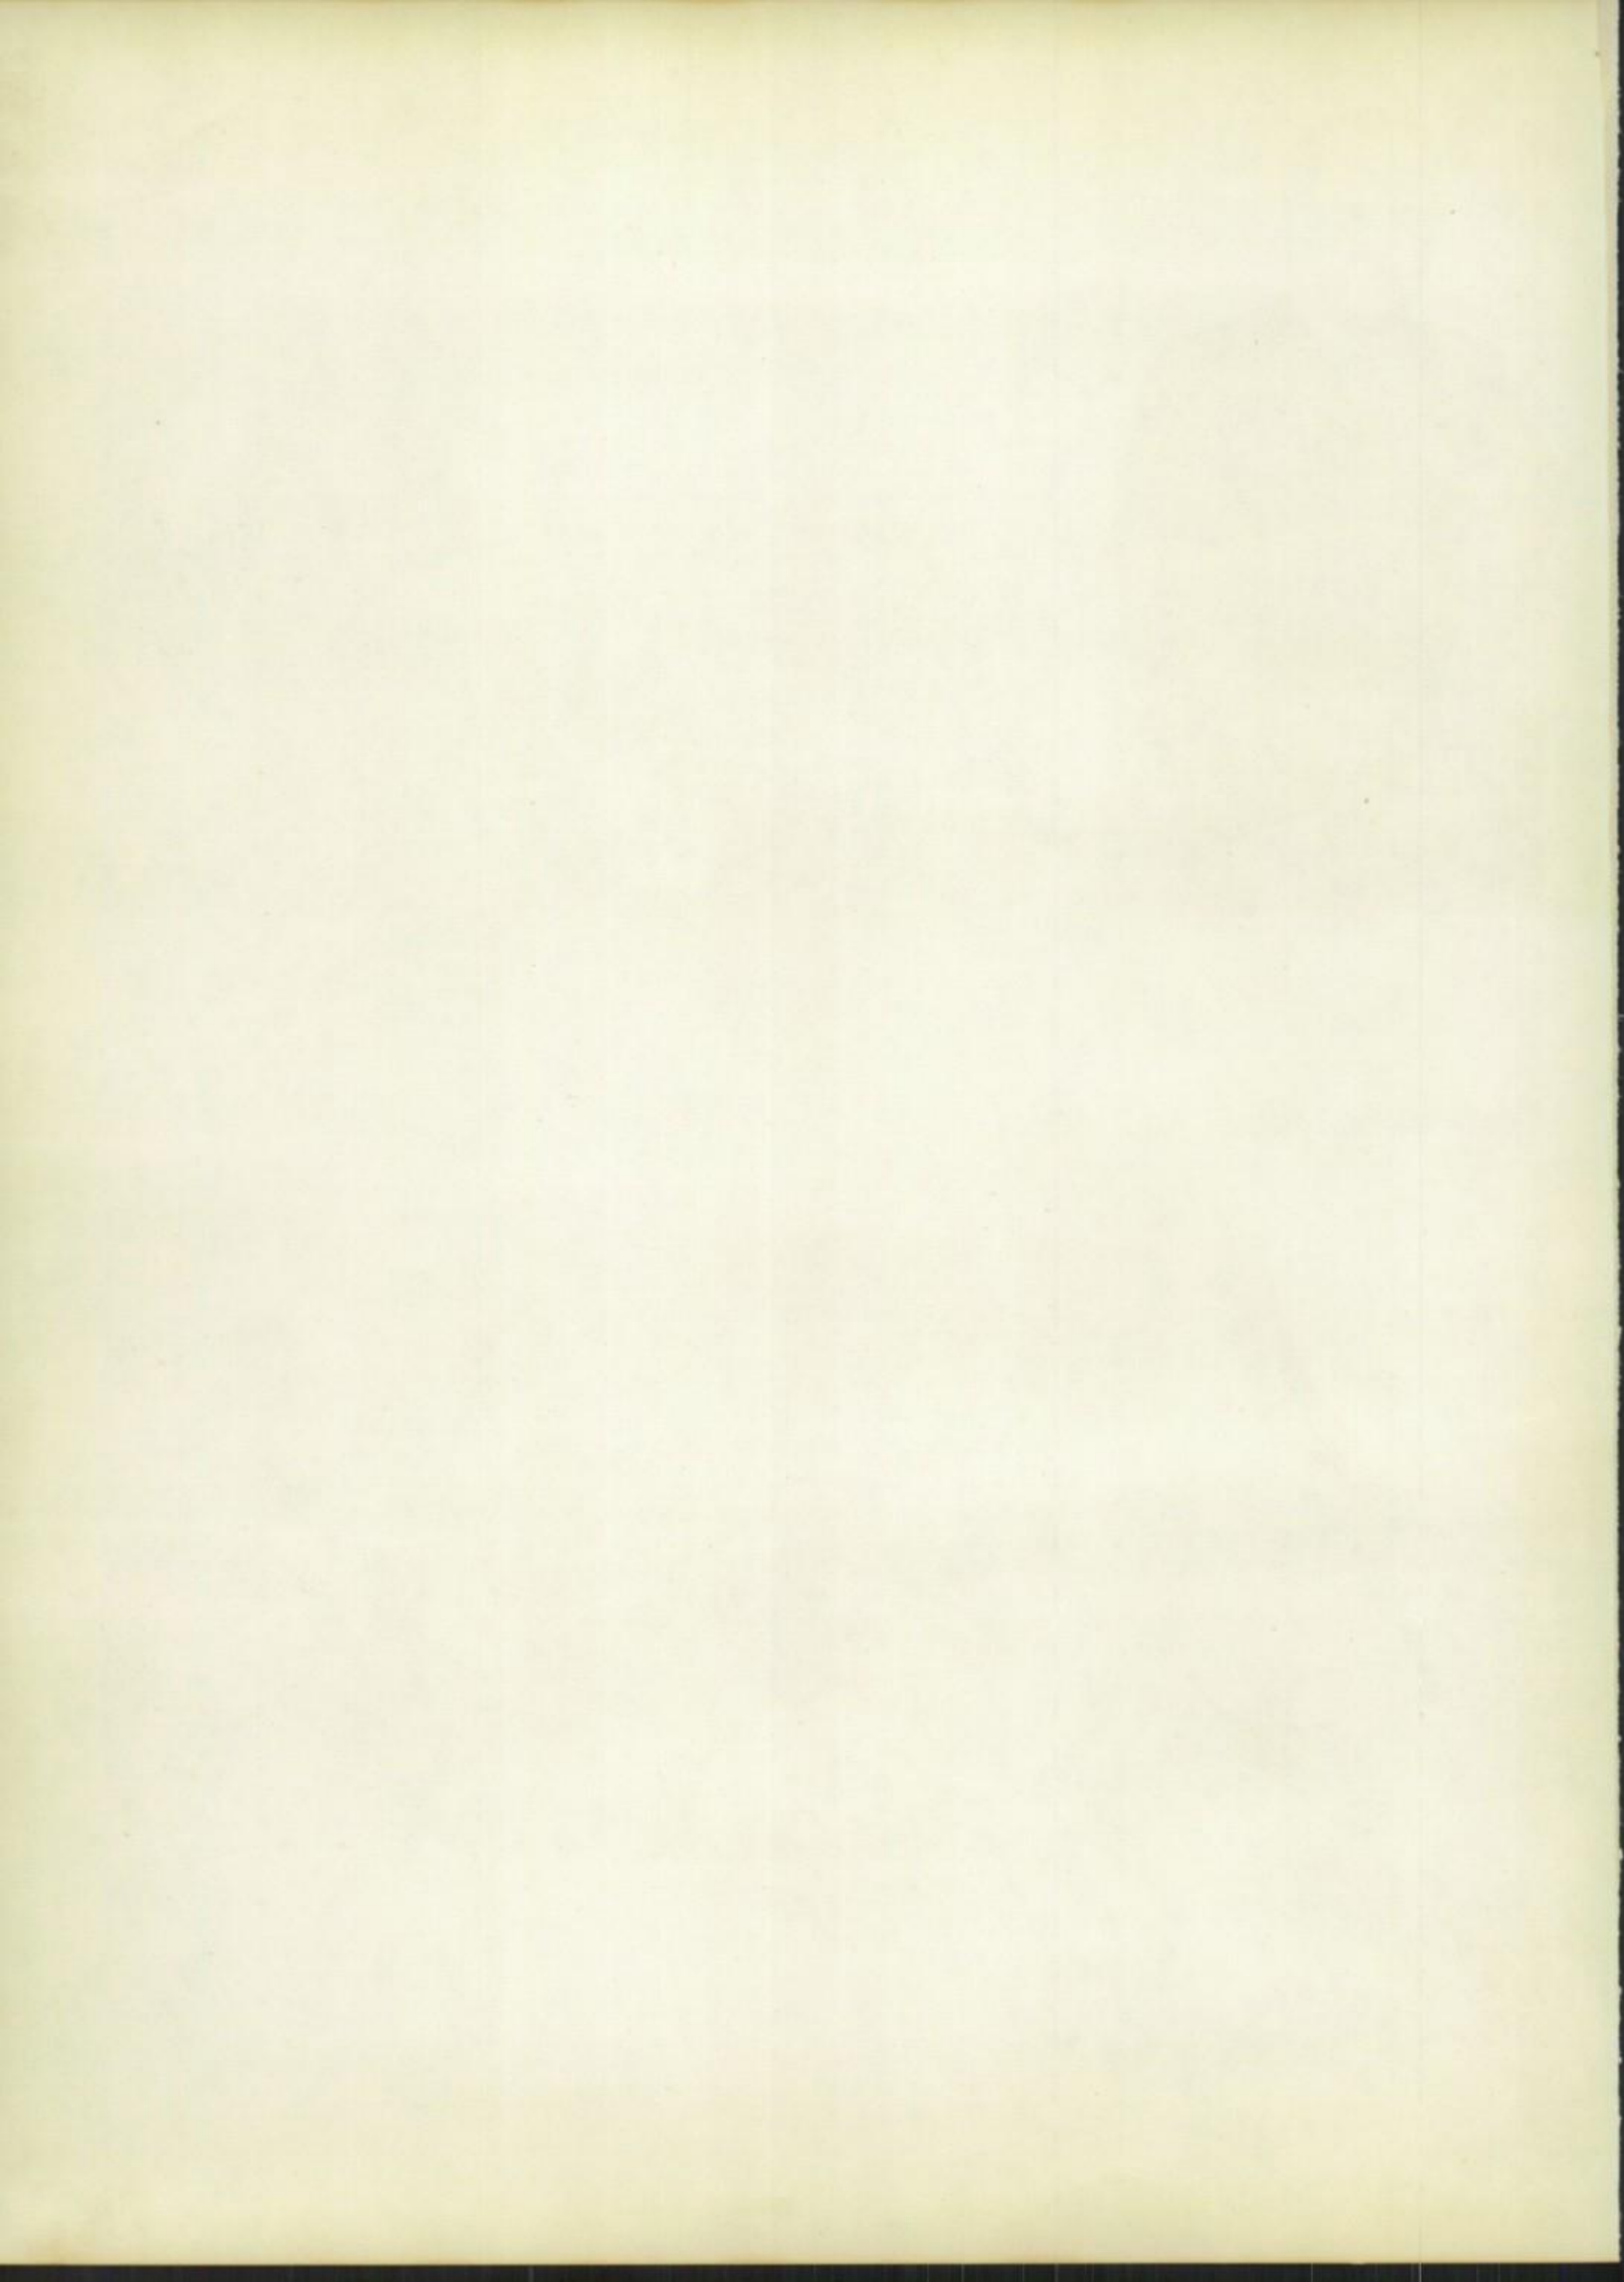

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

ACTIVITIES

1964 HOMECOMING

The 1964 Football Homecoming was climaxed when we beat Klondike 18-13. The 1964 Football Homecoming queen was Sophomore, Kathy Ray. She was crowned at halftime by Jim Geeding, captain of the football team. She was escorted by Butch Swift. Her attendants were Kathy Neumayr, Junior, escorted by Bill Wolfe; and Jackie Martin, Senior, escorted by Marshall Galloway.

The Sophomore float placed first in the Homecoming parade. The Juniors placed second, Seniors, third, and the Freshmen received honorable mention.

SENIOR WILLS

I, Dave Banta, will to Dogs Hatton my magnificent math and singing ability, and to Mike Kirts 24 brand new mouse traps and a skinning knife.

I, Marilyn Barnhart, will to Sandy Gremore my ability to stay out of trouble and in school until vacations start, and to Larry Crawford another weakling in Art Class, so that he can show off his great abundance of muscular power.

I, Ona Best, will to Linda Knowles the ability to be seen and not heard.

I, Chuck Booe, Will to "Wink Wolfe" one sheet of paper to repay him for the one sheet I used to write my will on, and to "Ace Ward" my "hot one."

We, Gale Branigin, Sandy Freed, and Suzanne Tipton will to Mr. Williams and all-expense-paid trip to the mental institution of his choice, and our position in Chemistry Lab to anyone with the intestinal fortitude to take our places.

I, Don Brown, will leave.

I, Donna Brown, will Penny Cooper my gym suit, to Jo Ann Pearl a new senior girlfriend who can take some good understanding about her problems, and to Jackie Hensely and Sue Galloway the best of luck to get a car as soon as they turn 16.

I, Kemp Busic, will David Johnson the use of my old Buick the next time he goes to Florida.

I, Pete Buck, will anybody in the Junior Class my ability to get in the Literary Club fourth period.

I, John Burris, will to Mr. Dunn another person to argue with in fifth period study hall.

I, Donna Cartwright, will my ability to learn government to the entire Junior Class.

I, Brenda Christenberry, will my nickname "Dink" to Penny Pearl and Vanna Wolfe.

I, Judi Church, will to Debby Nathan my ability to date one guy for over two years and then become engaged to the same guy. Good Luck Debby!

I, Danny Collins, will to "Ace" Ward my nickname, "Bunny," because he deserves it.

I, Linda Davis, will to Mr. Williams ear plugs, so he can't hear the shattering of glass in Chemist Lab.

I, Tom Durr, will be leaving soon, but I don't want anyone to cry about it.

I, Lynne Eller, will my shyness to Patty McDaniel.

I, Phyllis Ferguson, will to Mr. Dunn the ability to judge people by their personalities and not by where they came from.

I, Priscilla Foster, will anyone interested enough my knitting bag and the nerve to stick to it for a whole year.

I, Larry Freeman, will to Hughie McDaniel, that is if he gets this far, my seat and position as official blind tender in government class.

I, Steve Freeman, hereby leave to the younger classes the ability to get along with younger kids and not get into any trouble.

I, Susan Fuller, will to sister my nickname "Brush," and to Kathy Ray a player Piano, so that she can play her music that she types to in typing class, and I leave Kathy a can of flea powder for her starched blouses.

I, Marshall Galloway, will all my nicknames to anyone dumb enough to take them.

I, Barbara Gates, will my nickname "Barbie Doll" to anyone who looks like plastic and has the name Barbara.

I, Jim Geeding, will my "51" Avonti to Tink Hudson, a true connoisseur of vintage automobiles and the only one who can appreciate it. I also will the senior bunny to the leaders of next year's Boy's Booster Club.

I, Kathy Foster, will to Larry Crawford a tree that talks back to him.

I, Becky Gosnell, will to Ottie Garret and Raymond Haas my ability to argue so that Ottie can be elected president of the U. S., and Raymond can lose some weight.

I, Bonnie Gray, will my job in the Band Dept. to anyone with enough nerve to try it.

I, Chuck Hann, will to the remaining students of Attica High School, a pain reliever for suffering of Burke's Law. I will to Ottie Garret his very own cap pistol in chorus, so that he won't have to use his pointing finger to go "Bang."

I, Carl Harper, will to Mike Sheridan, Pat Clark, and Jerry Gossett my ability to "Cut" in cross country and not get caught, and to Tom Ward my golf ability.

I, Sharon Hawkins, will my year's subscription of "Awake" to anyone who can endure a sermon every Saturday Afternoon.

I, Lana Hermanson, will to Linda Knowles a door in her bedroom to sneak outside, instead of hiding in the closet.

I, Kay Holycross, will to Janice Anderson my seat in government and I hope that she does better filling it than I did.

I, Carolyn Hutson, will my high bowling average to Jerry Gossett.

I, Robert James, will to Richard Asher, two years of good luck at A.H.S.

I, Stephanie King, will my nickname "Jet" to Mike Sheridan, who had it to begin with.

I, Sandy Kochell, will to Carla Ferling my natural brown hair, and to Georgia Hushaw my graceful walk.

I, Jane Lambert, will to Pete Hatton and Steve Martin a good tape measure so that I can prove to them that I am not six feet tall.

I, Judy Lowe, will Mickie Newmun my height, so she will have room to grow.

I, Danny Martin, will to the varsity basketball team of '66 another "Crash Crew" like the team of '65. May they all be football players.

I, Jackie Martin, will to Dayleann Banta, her own personal Ann Landers, so she will have someone to tell her troubles to after I'm gone, and to Beverly Turner my seat on the bus.

I, Larry McDaniel, will to Mr. Shirley another Senior cafeteria line so he will have something to do next year.

I, Dennis McFerren, will my nickname "Jimmy Jet" to Tom Williams, and my defensive end position in football to Spud Butler.

I, John C. Myers, will to Mike Horn a new encyclopedia of Playboy jokes to replace the jokes he got from Chuck Hann, and to Ed Rollins a years' supply of cokes, so he won't have to mooch money to buy them.

I, Dick Ogborn, will my nickname "Coach" to anyone who looks like me, and my coaching ability to Mr. Dunn.

I, Bob Pattengale, will to Tom Williams my ability to interest the opposite sex (especially blonds).

I, Larry Pierce, will to my brother, Danny Pierce, my marvelous brain-power, because he hasn't got brains for anything.

I, Agnes Raymundo, will my height and perfect athletic ability to Butch Swift.

I, Carolyn Reynolds, will to my sister Eileen, the ability to flunk government when she's a senior.

I, Susie Sims, will to Judy Henderson somebody else to sing to in seventh period study hall.

I, Linda Smart, will Mr. Dunn another girls in driver's training class, who wants to be a race car driver.

I, Pamela Smart, will to Mr. Priest a new Grammar book, dealing only with punctuation.

I, Peggy Smart, will Judy Jones a new set of legs, since it's doubtful that she will get the puddle-jumper she wants.

I, Geraldine Smith, will to the 7th and 8th grade a Jr. High building of their own, so that couples can walk in the halls together without getting run over.

I, Jack Smith, will to Mrs. Shackleton another 7th period U.S. history class of Dave Banta, Larry Pierce, Jim Geeding, John Myers, and me.

I, Jim Smith, will to anyone, my ability to take physics with the "brains," namely Jim Geeding and Terry Sutton, and pass.

I, Terry Sutton, will my athletic ability, height and weight and jumping ability to Butch Swift in order that he may be an even better basketball player than he is now.

I, Mike Switzer, will to Mrs. Shackleton a new sense of humor, for I wore her old one out.

I, Bill Tolbott, will my ability to sleep in the study halls to Gary Stetler.

I, Wayne Stevens, will to Mike Nicklos my magic pencil in hope that he will pass Algebra.

I, Peggy Thomas, will to Marcia Nolan her own personal library of dirty jokes, and to Marilyn Beedle a seat belt for the back seat of our Fiat when I fishtail.

I, Make VanHyfte, will to Mrs. Shackleton two more World History scholars, like Danny Martin and me, to supply her with all the answers and also to calm her down when she gets aggravated at the rest of the class.

I, Bob Walkup, will my nickname "Scrub" to Tom O'dore, and to Pete Hatton some seat belts for his car for those quick trips to the beach.

I, Tamara Weber, will to Becky McMurtrie my ability to get shorthand and to my brother, Edward, I will my ability to get my homework done at home.

I, Phyllis White, will Cindy Summers a nice soft cushion and a friend, so she won't be lonely while she is waiting for Steve next year.

I, Jim Wilson, will leave.

I, Kay Wilson, will Valerie Pruitt my ability to stay away from the Asbury family and to Butch Swift, my height and co-ordination, so that he may be the star of the 1965-66 A.H.S. basketball team.

I, Linda Wilson, will to Steve Martin, Pete Hatton, and Dick Brown, a little bungalow in the woods, so they can be by themselves on New Year's Eve and also to the next Editor of the yearbook the courage to face Mr. Johnson twice a day with a pass out of study hall.

I, Bill Wolfe, will to Mike Sheridan and Penny Pearl their very own Marriage counselor.

I, Ed Wolfe, will Steve Schmid and Cindy Summers a park bench to put in our lilac bush, so they won't have to stand up and also to Mr. Hollingsworth 1,000 passes to pay for the ones which he has given me.

I, Jackie Young, will the Junior Class a gambling casino for minors.

I, Rick Yates, will to anyone who wants it my ability to sleep in all my classes and get away with it.

I, Larry Young, will Mr. Fuller a new tool foreman to round up all of his tools in woodworking class.

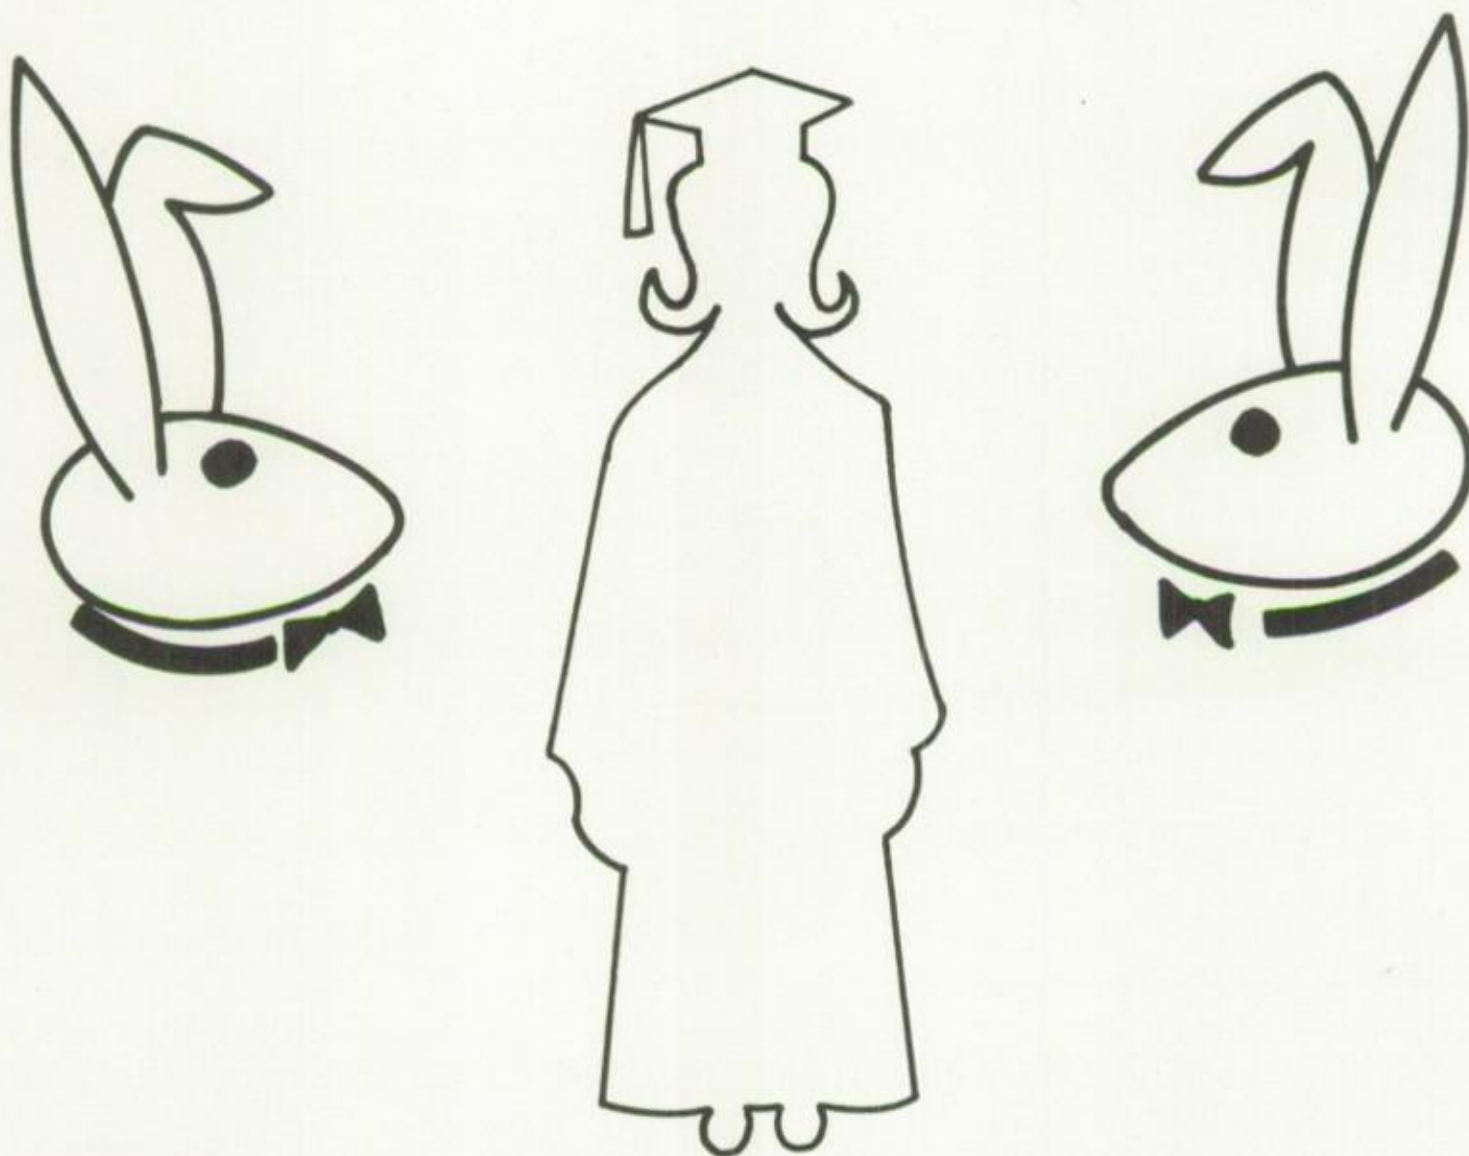

I, Joan Zick, will my blonde hair to Cathy Meyer and hope she has fun trying to get it to do what she wants it to.

We, the Seniors of '65, will the class of '66 bigger mouths and hardier voices, so that they can take over our place at winning school spirit contests when we leave.

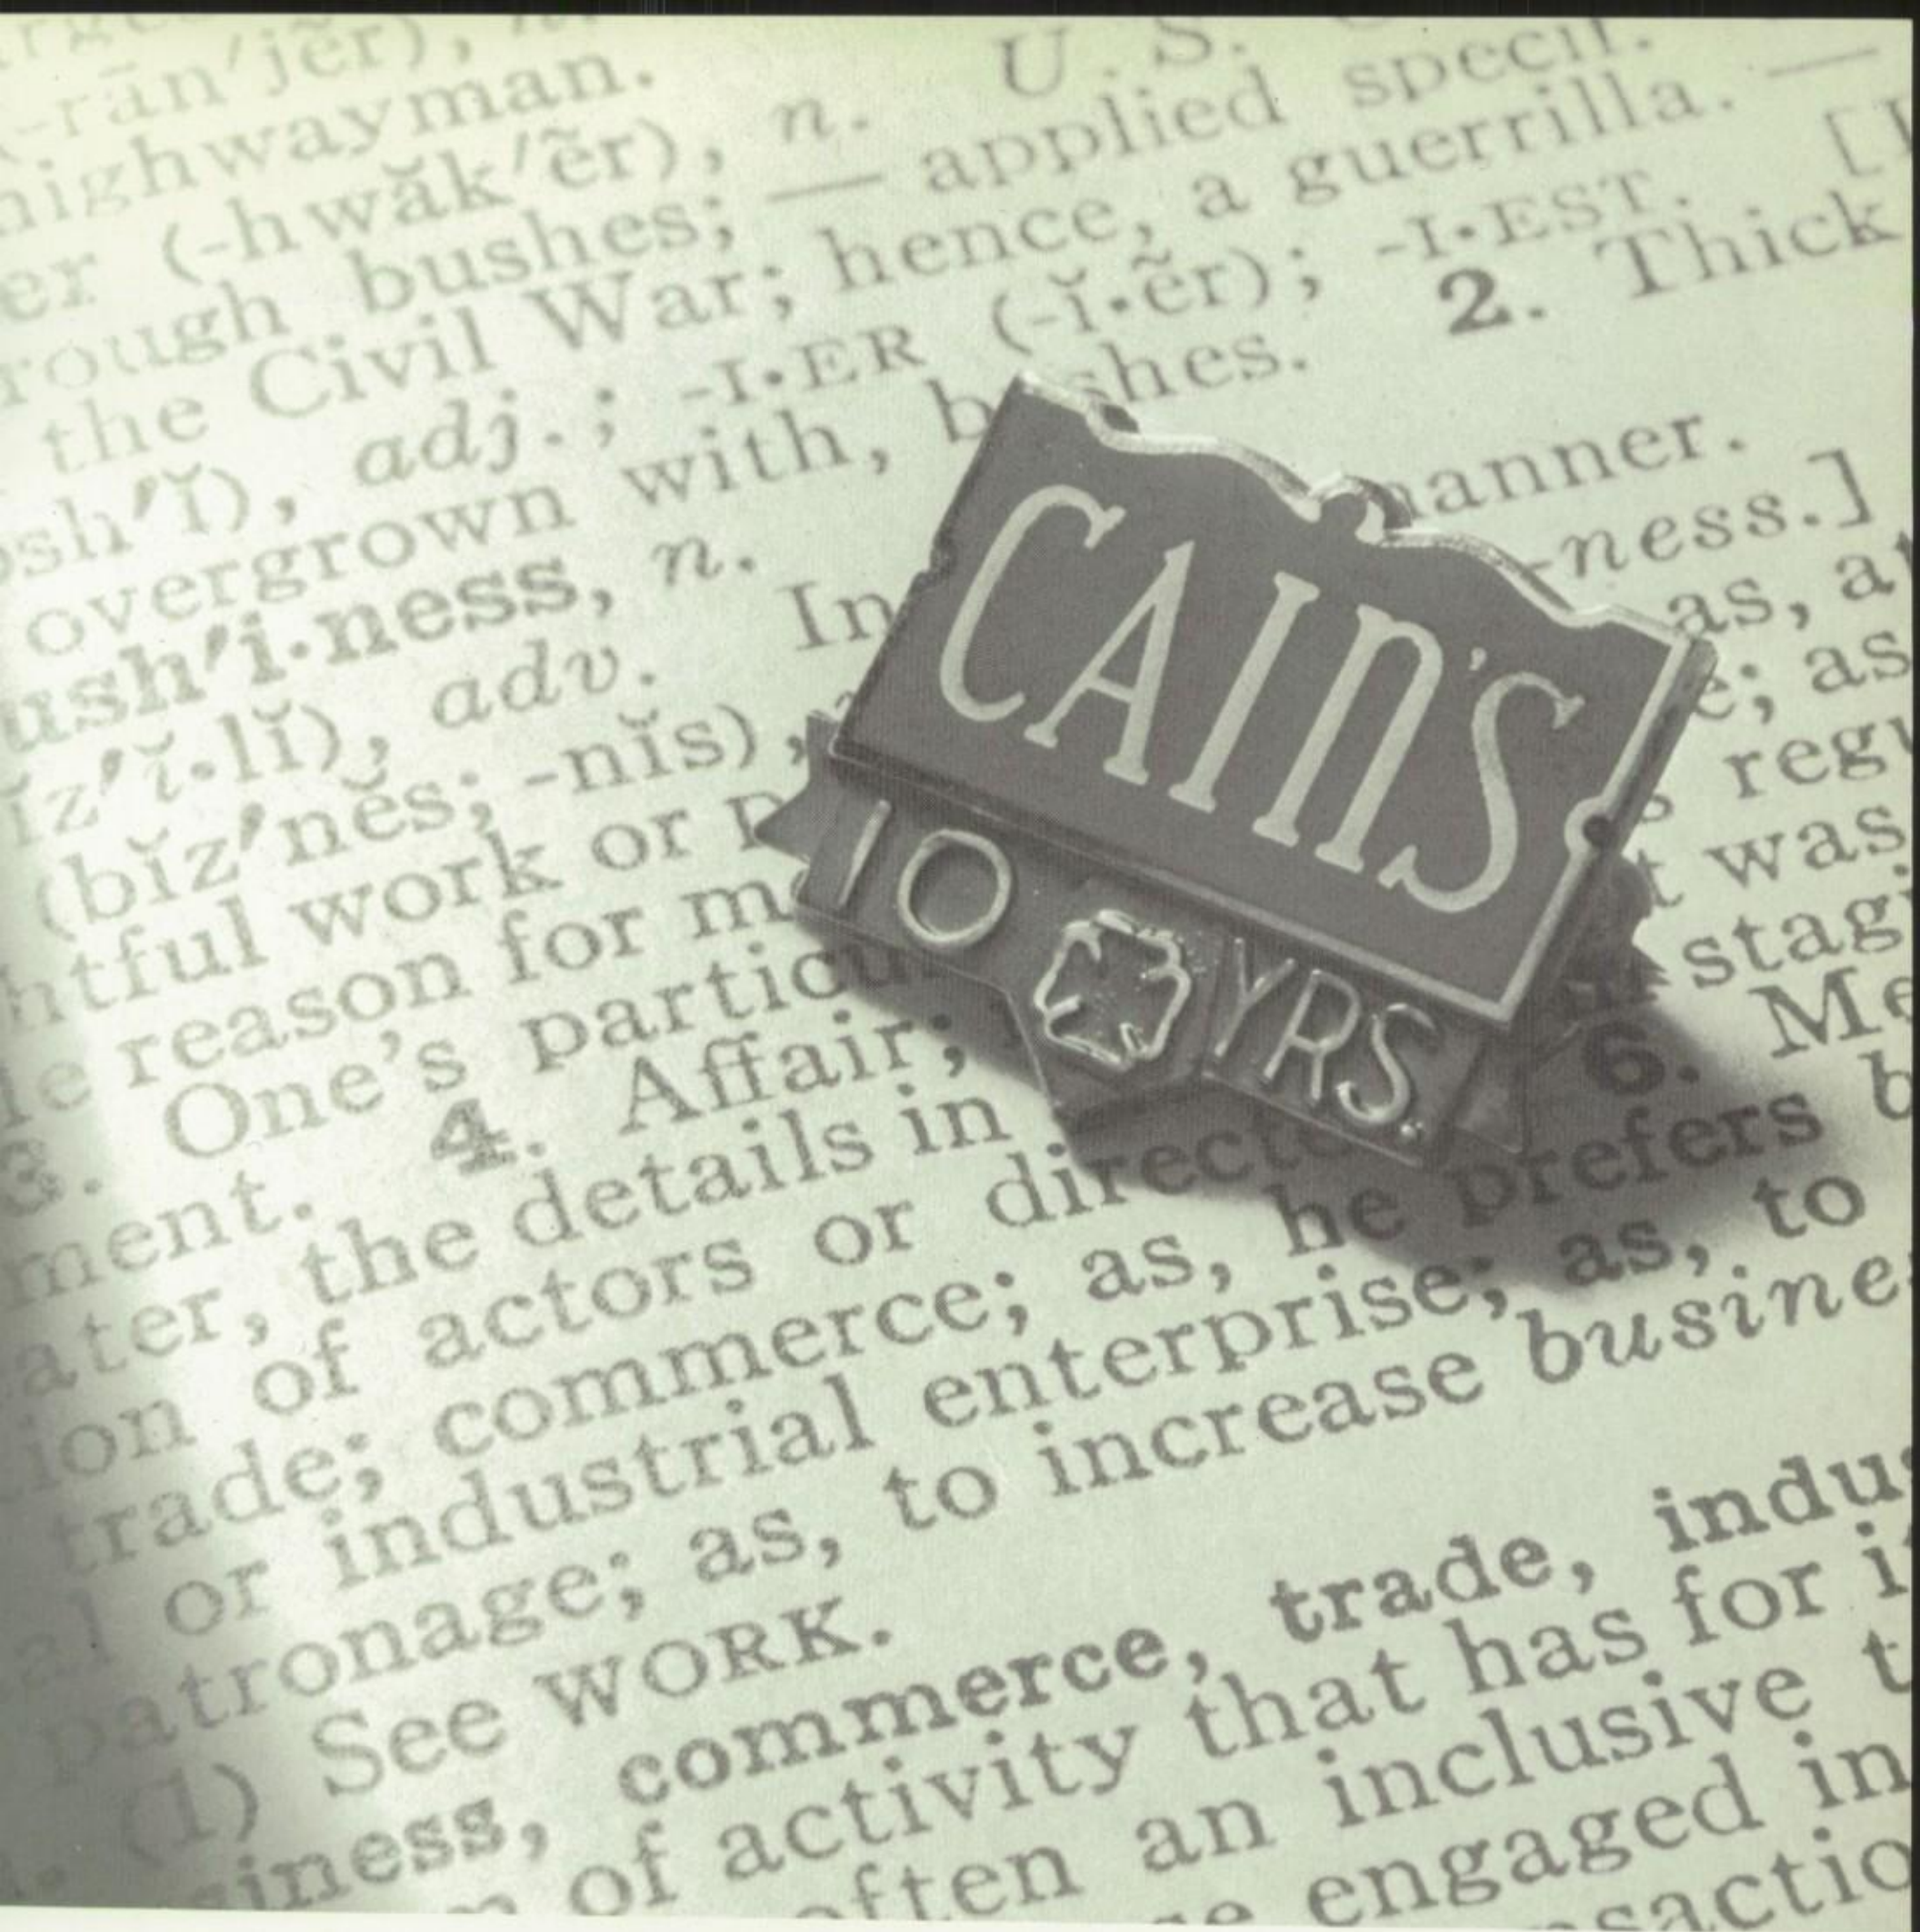

We, the Seniors of '65, will the class of '67, our good humor and funny jokes, so that everyone will remember what good joy and laughter we brought to the halls of good 'ole A.H.S.

We, the Seniors of '65, will the class of '68 the ability to take over where we left off. It may be hard, but you'll make it.

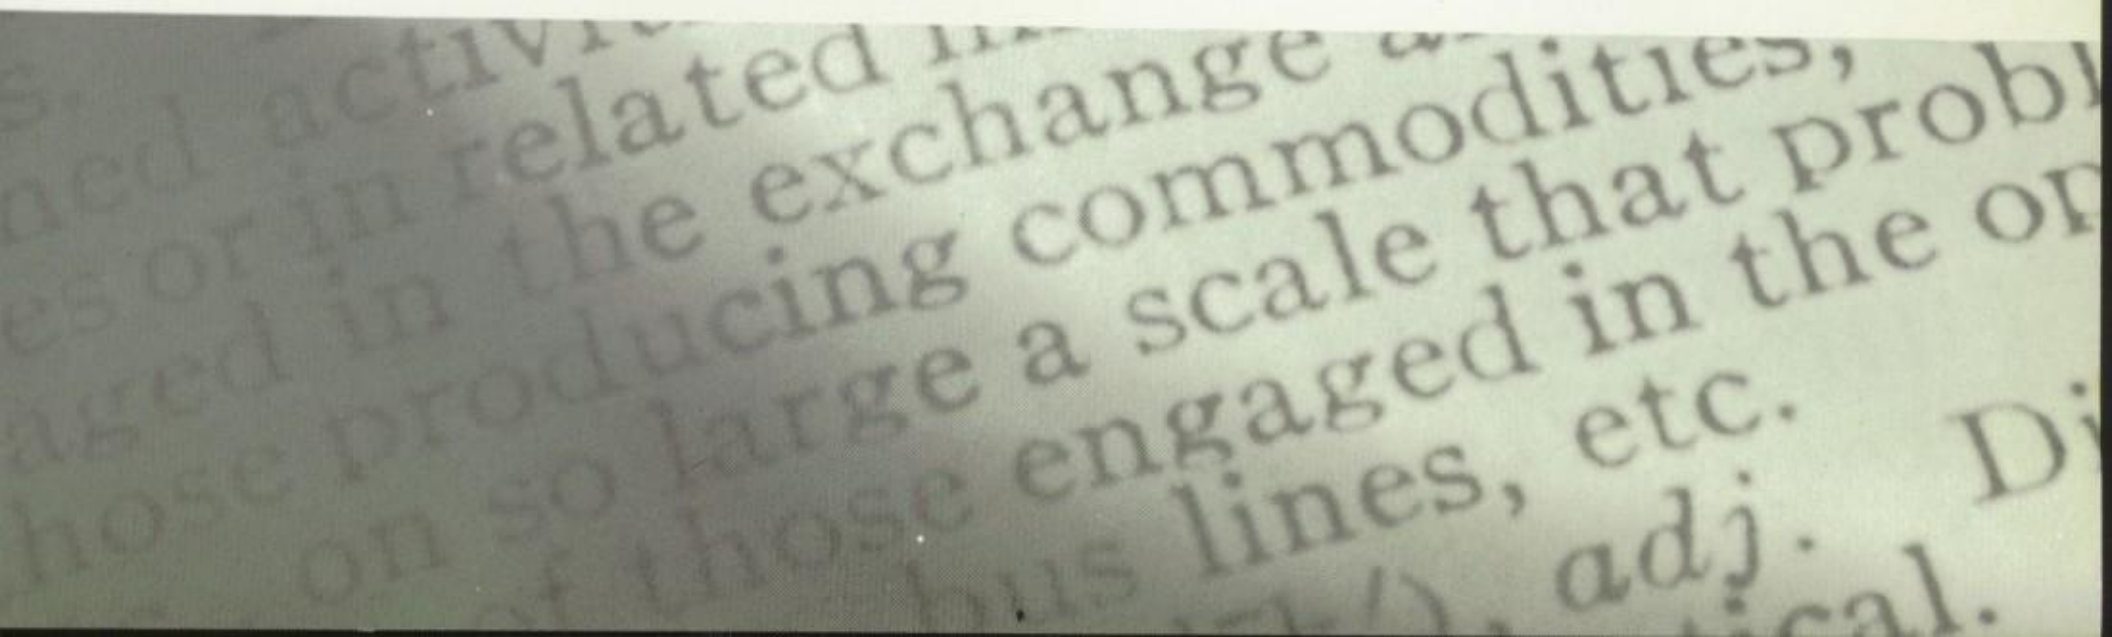

We, the Seniors of '65, will the class of '69 a big can of white paint, so that they won't look quite so green next year.

Chou Listens—Red Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai held an earpiece as he listened to an address by the Soviet Union's new party leader, Leonid Brezhnev, during a meeting of world Communists in Moscow on November 6. Alexei Kosygin, Soviet premier, is at right.

They Died in '64—These world figures died during the year. From left are Prime Minister Nehru of India, General Douglas MacArthur of the United States and former President Herbert Hoover.

Stretcher Cases—Wounded white hostages and Belgian paratroopers were carried from rescue plane at Leopoldville after it arrived from Stanleyville November 24. The paratroopers descended on the rebel-held Congo city just as a massacre of hostages began, and their quick work saved the lives of hundreds.

New President—Foreign Minister Giuseppe Saragat (right) was formally notified in Rome on the night of December 28 that he had been elected president of Italy.

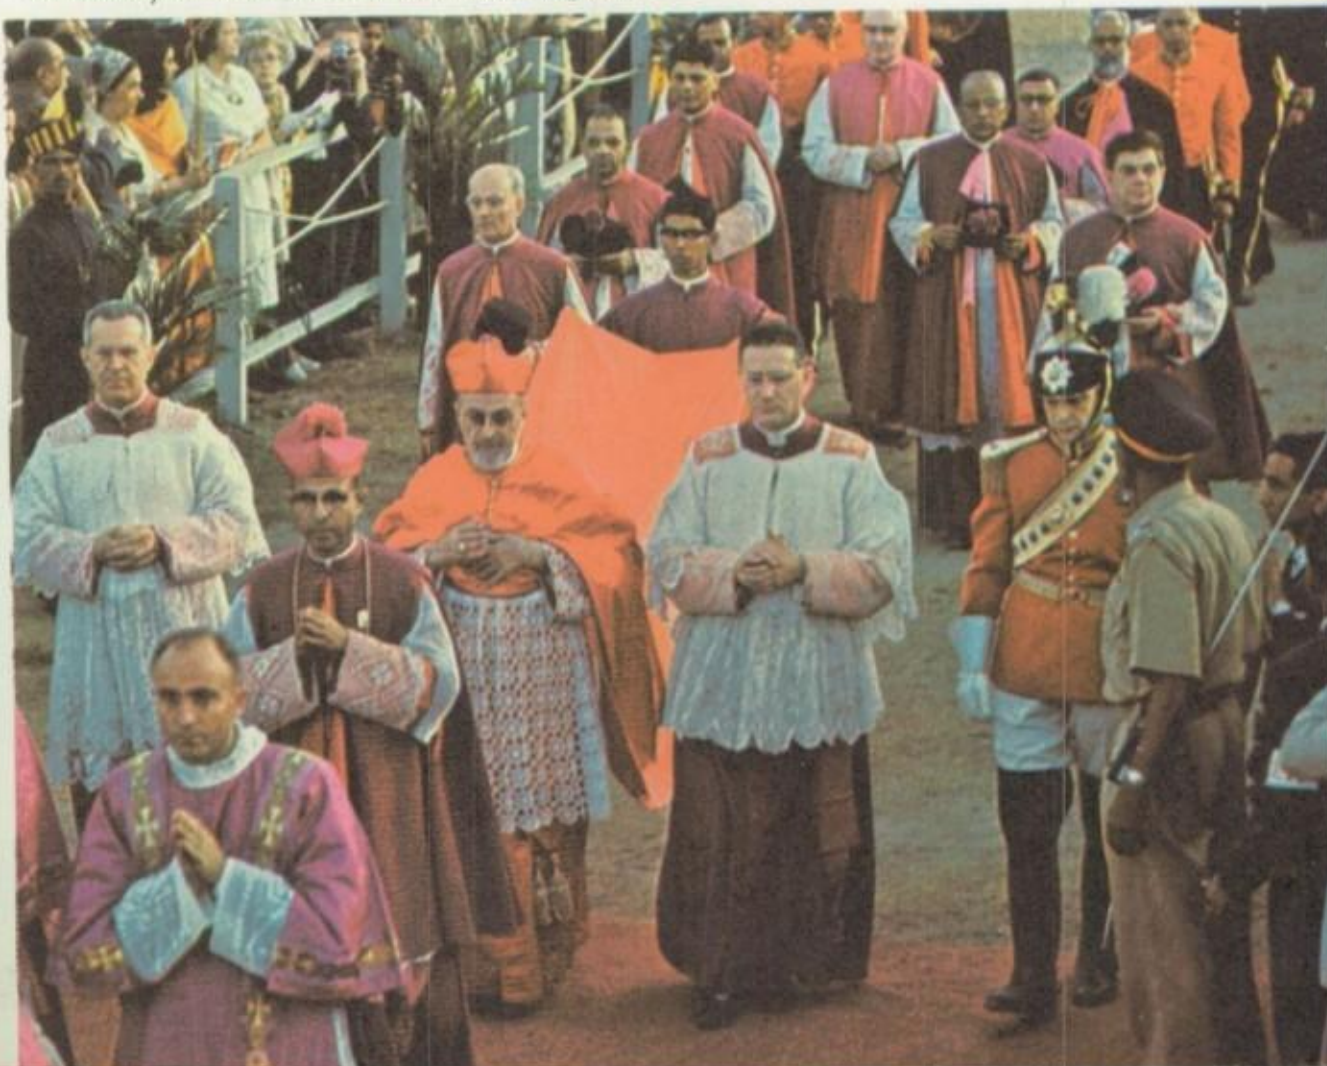

World Events in Review—1964

Alliance Talks—British Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker, left, talked with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard in Bonn on November 15 during efforts to find a compromise on a new nuclear force for the troubled Atlantic Alliance.

Pope Visits India—The 38th International Eucharistic Congress opened in Bombay, India, on November 28. In December, Pope Paul VI made the longest papal journey in history to attend sessions of the congress.

Winnie at 90—Winston Churchill acknowledged cheers of well-wishers who gathered outside the window of his Hyde Park home in London on November 30. The occasion was his 90th birthday.

Tokyo, Japan—William H. Mills (left) of the U. S. A., led Mohamed Gam-moudi of Tunisia across the finish line to win the Olympic 10,000 meter event on October 14.

Swampy Victory—A group of Viet Cong prisoners sat quietly in Camau last October while guarded by armed South Vietnamese troops. The prisoners were among those captured during a major battle on the Camau peninsula.

Reunions at the Wall—An East German mother embraced her West German children last November at the Helmstedt railway station after the border dividing East and West Germany was opened for the first time since 1961 for East Germans.

Change of Power—Alexei Kosygin, 60, left, and Leonid Brezhnev, 57, respectively, were named to be premier of the Soviet Union and secretary of the Communist party on October 15. They took over the posts vacated by the resignation of Nikita Khrushchev.
